

Arahata Forums – Coming to an Area Near You!

Whether in small group discussions, book discussions, or Satsang classes, as an Arahata, you are an instrument of the ECK. Your openness to the Mahanta creates a special vortex for deeper understanding of spiritual truths. Through the Mahanta, you create a sacred, safe space for participants to find their own answers, to hear their own inner voice, and to connect directly with the Mahanta through this wider channel.

Whether you're new to group discussions or an old hand, this Arahata Forum is for you. All chelas are welcome. Together with other like-minded Souls, you will:

- Gain new insights
- Build your confidence
- Hone your skills, and
- Learn to help others on their spiritual journey home to God

Join us from 1–4 pm in your local ECK Center:

DATE	LOCATION
Sunday, April 12th	Tidewater ECK Center
Saturday, May 16th	Richmond ECK Center
Sunday, July 26th	Northern Virginia ECK Center
Saturday, August 8th	Roanoke ECK Center

Presented by RESA Beth Berger, VSS President Lessandra MacHamer, and VSS Spiritual Services Director Jerry Whitmore.

“So long as the Satsangs have sufficient chelas who are open as channels for the ECK to reach the non-ECKists within their communities, nations, and on all levels of consciousness, then will the ECK survive.”

–Shariyat-Ki-Sugmad Books 1&2-page 197

